Reports of the Chief Constructor of the Navy and Supervising Inspector of Steam Vessels—A Masquerading Drummer—A Would-Be Purchaser of Oak View Finds it is Not For Sale-The Proposed Invasion of Oklahoma-The Naval Academy. WASHINGTON, Nov. 17, - Chief Constructor Wilson of the Navy, in his annual report of the operations of his buexpenditure of $885,319 in the repair of year amounting to $3,266,195.

The present strength of our navy and the condition of the vessels is summarized as follows: Five double-turreted monitors awaiting completion; two belted cruisers, preparing ways; thirteen single-turreted monitors, in ordinary; twenty-three unarmored steel and iron vessels, four of which are in commission, eleven building, two repairing, five on station and one in ordinary; twenty-eight wooden steam vessels nearly all on station or undergoing repairs, and eleven iron and wood steam tugs. The estimates for the next fiscal year call for $936,452 for construction and repair of sels completed, and $3 540,000 - the latter sum already appropriated -for hulls and outfits of new ships. He recommends the immediate construction of experimental works to cost $90,000 for use in the determination of the resistance and other qualities of ships by means of models, holding that the tanks will be of permanent value in designing
